I. OUR GENERAL DUTIES REGARDING YOUR MEDICAL INFORMATION<sup>1</sup>

We receive, use and create medical information and records related to the care and services you receive at EASTERN HILLS PEDIATRIC ASSOCIATES, INC. ("Practice"). We need such information to provide you with quality care, to comply with certain legal requirements, and to carry out business functions of the Practice. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your medical information (also known as "protected health information"). In other words, we must make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private. We are committed to protecting your privacy rights, and will only use or disclose your medical information as permitted by law.

<sup>1</sup> When the patient is a minor, the term "you" or "your," as used in this Notice, refers to the minor patient, represented by his or her parent, guardian, or other legal representative who is authorized by law to consent to the minor's medical treatment.
